MESSES. WALLACE TO SPEAK AT CHESTERFIELD COURT MONDAY.

MR. W. T. JONES SUES FOR DAMAGES

Manchester Citizen Claims $10,000 of Mr. Suellings-Personals-Brie

To-morrow promises to be a gala day for the Democrats of Chesterfield county. because of the speaking at the court-

The October term of the County Court begins, and as usual at this season of the when there is a November election, he first day is taken up slightly in setlling cases and largely in speaking. The farmers come in great numbers from every section of the county, and a day of much rest and pleasure is spent by them on the court-green discussing the crops and politics, or else listening to campaign

The speakers to-morrow will be Messrs. Jefferson Wallace and Charles M. Wallace, Jr., of Richmond. The former is chairman of the City Committee, and is chairman of the City Committee, and is one of the best posted men on State poli-tics and political questions generally in Virginia. His brother is a member of the present Legislature from Richmond, and a speaker of much force. Both are young men, once residents of Manchester, and well-known both in this city and in the county. They are nephews of Judge William L. Clopton, of the Chesterfield Court.

WILL ADDRESS THE JUNIORS. WILL ADDRESS THE JUNIORS.

Rev. George H. McFaden will deliver an address to the several councils of the Junior Order United American Mechanics and the Daughters of Liberty this afternoon at the Fifth-Street Methodist church. The Juniors will assemble at their halls and march to the church, where they, with the Daughters of Liberty, will occupy reserved seats. The public is also invited to be present. There will be special music also, and the exercises promise altogether to be very interesting.

SUES FOR DAMAGES.

SUES FOR DAMAGES. Mr. William T. Jones, of this city, has entered suit in the Circuit Court of Norfolk, through his counsel, Messrs. Bronauch and Dabney, of Norfolk, and W.

B. Cox, of Manchester, against the Union Mining and Roofing Company, of Norfolk, to recover $10.000 alleged damages. While employed by this company some time ago, Mr. Jones fell from a roof and crippled himself for life. He claims that this was due to the negligence of his employers, and seeks to recover the above amount. Mr. Jones uses a stick while

In execution of a certain deed of trust, dated August 8, 1893, recorded in Deed-Book 149, B, page 358, Richmond Chancery Court, the undersigned trustee will sell by public auction, on the premises, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1898, at 4:30 o'clock P. M., the REAL ESTATE described in said deed, it being the abovenamed well-known "Match Factory," the lot fronting 00 feet on Reservoir street, and extending back within parallel lines 120 feet to a wide alley, and there are two connecting, spacious, and substantial brick factory buildings thereon. This property is well suited in location, size, and construction for any small manufactory, and adjacent ground can now be had if desired.

TERMS: By consent and in lieu of the terms required by the deed, one third cash, and the belonce in the service of th HISTORIC AND VALUABLE FARM
KNOWN AS "TUCKAHOE," SITUATED ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE JAMES RIVER ABOUT FOURTEEN MILES ABOVE RICHMOND, VA.

By virtue of a decree entered April 1, 1898, in re Citizens' Bank vs. V. M. Allen and others, in the Circuit Court of Gooch-land county, we, the undersigned special commissioners, will sell at public auction, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1898.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1898, at 12:30 P. M., the REAL ESTATE referred to in said decree, being the valuable farm on the James-River branch of the Chesapeske and Ohio railway known as "Upper Tuckahoe," containing 6:55 acres, more or less. This is considered one of the finest farms on James river. There are about 175 acres of alluvial bottom lands, and the upland is of excellent character, mostly chocolate, producing fine crops of tobacco, grass, and grain. The dwelling is of great historic interest, having at one time been occupied by the father of Thomas Jefferson, and was also the country-seat of one of the branches of the Randolph family. The property is very near the Gayton Coal Mines, and is rich in promises of mineral wealth. Parties interested in the coal feature of this property would do well to communicate with Professor N. S. Shaler, of Harvard University, who, we are informed, has made a geological survey of the land.

The farm is on one of the best roads leading out of the city of Richmond, and is, therefore, casy of access both by railroad and vehicle.
